

POST-DOCTORAL APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN FOR THE CHANGE T32 TRAINING PROGRAM!

UNIVERSITY
OF MIAMI

CHANGE Training Program

We are recruiting 1 postdoctoral trainee to start Spring 2024 with the T32 Training Program here at the University of Miami called CHANGE - Culturally-focused HIV Advancements through the Next Generation for Equity.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- US Citizen
- Received doctorate (or medical) degree at time of appointment
- Demonstrate commitment to developing research careers to address mental and HIV inequities in Black, Latinx/e/o, and LGBTQ+ communities

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

- CV
- 3 academic references
- Recommendation Letter(s)
- Unofficial Transcript
- Applicant Statement

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Directed by Drs. Daniel Feaster, Sannisha Dale, and Viviana Horigian, and housed under the UM Center for HIV and Research in Mental Health (CHARM), CHANGE offers a great opportunity to develop the next generation of researchers with the expertise to successfully address HIV and Mental Health disparities throughout the HIV prevention and treatment cascades using community-engaged research, implementation, and dissemination.

PROGRAM COMPETENCIES

Social Determinants of HIV and Mental Health Outcomes

Biological/Clinical Foundations of HIV & Mental Health Prevention, Care, & Treatment

Community-Based Participatory Research (CPBR)

Training in Responsible Conduct of Research

State of Science Methods for Design, Analysis, & Reproducibility

Professional & Career Development

Innovations in Assessment, Intervention, & Implementation Science in Specific Populations

Scientific & Grant Writing

INTERESTED?

To find out more, request a consultation with the directors, and submit your application, visit our website charm.miami.edu/change/ or email us at CHANGE-program@miami.edu